Pastor’s Letter

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Mount Carmel,

A blessed Memorial Day to all!

Most on my mind is the coming anniversary on June 1 of the passing of Fr. Leonard. We will be praying for him by name at all Masses this weekend. On June 1 the 8:30 Mass will be offered for him. I truly believe his spirit is at peace because he is with God.

Next weekend will be a very joyous occasion for our whole parish. Dr. Michael Giuliano will be ordained deacon on Saturday, June 4 at 12 Noon at the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark by Archbishop John J. Myers. On Sunday Deacon Michael will assist at the 12 Noon Mass in his new role as deacon. Our other deacons, David Loman and Lex Ferraiuola, will be on the altar as well.

There will be a reception in honor of Michael in the parish auditorium after the 12 o'clock Mass. This gathering is being organized by Carol Loman and Wanda Ferraiuola. So, you will note the great blessing our deacons AND their wives are to our Church family.

I also want to offer belated congratulations to every person from OLMC who had any role in the huge fundraiser in support of Siena House. I have never seen the auditorium so jam-packed AND $20,000 was cleared as profit to be sent along to Siena House. Bravo! Bravo! Bravo!

Thanks be to God for all the veterans who have served us and all the deacons and all others who serve the human family.

Sincerely yours in Christ and Our Lady of Mount Carmel,
fr. Dan

REMEMBERING
FR. LEONARD J. GILMAN, O.CARM.
JUNE 1, 2016

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on June 1st at 8:30 in the morning is being offered for Fr. Leonard J. Gilman, O. Carm. Please join us as we remember him as pastor and friend.

“What we call the beginning is often the end. And to make an end is to make a beginning. The end is where we start from.”
– T. S. Eliot

“My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think that I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire. And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road though I may know nothing about it. Therefore will I trust you always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death. I will not fear, for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.”
– Thomas Merton, Thoughts in Solitude

“Be kind to one another.”
– Fr. Leonard J. Gilman, O.Carm.

How Do We Learn the Catholic Faith?

“There’s no education happening unless the student has some desire to learn. Ideally, in a parish faith formation context, the student desires to learn more about his faith because he is pursuing an active, personal relationship with Christ. He wants to learn what he needs to know in order to become a better disciple.

Realistically, some come to class out of simple curiosity. Young children may be motivated to learn their faith simply because it’s important to mom and dad; they instinctively know that what the parents think is important must be important. In confirmation and RCIA, some students may have a baser motive: I need to please my parent or spouse by doing this thing, or I want to get caught up on my sacraments and this is the parish hurdle.

…Christian formation is not one single educational act, but an entire collection of things we do to help each other grow in our faith.”

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

In the early Church, when a person sought to become Christian, he or she was called a catechumen and entered into a period of intense instruction within the community. When this period of instruction was completed, catechumens were baptized and received into “the body of the faithful.” The Church welcomes into the process of preparation persons who have never been baptized, those already baptized in another Christian tradition, or baptized Catholics who have not received First Eucharist or Confirmation.

If you or someone you know has been thinking about becoming a member of the Catholic Church, but would first like information about the process, please call Sr. Regina at 201-871-4662.

“The first setting in which faith enlightens the human city is the family.”

– Pope Francis

Today’s Gospel tells the story about Jesus teaching a crowd of people and the apostles worrying about whether there will be enough food to feed everyone gathered. Then, Jesus gave thanks to God, blessed the bread and fish and shared it with the people. When everyone was done, there was food left over!

Play, Learn and Grow... Together!
Pope Francis

“So let us ask ourselves..., in adoring Christ who is really present in the Eucharist: do I let myself be transformed by him? Do I let the Lord who gives himself to me, guide me to going out ever more from my little enclosure, in order to give, to share, to love him and others? Brothers and sisters, following, communion, sharing. Let us pray that participation in the Eucharist may always be an incentive: to follow the Lord every day, to be instruments of communion and to share what we are with him and with our neighbour. Our life will then be truly fruitful.”
