Our Lady of Mount Carmel Mission Statement

“We are the Roman Catholic Community of Our Lady of Mount Carmel based in Tenafly, New Jersey.

Our mission is the promotion of the holiness of life through the celebration of the Sacraments, the sharing of the Gospel and the promotion of Catholic values.

We offer pastoral care through ministries that provide education, healing, spiritual growth and social outreach in the Carmelite tradition.”

*“No matter who you are, no matter what you’ve done, no matter where you’re from,
no matter where you’re going,
no matter how good or bad things seem,
you are always welcome.”*

TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Sunday, May 6th
John 15:9-17

"...This is my commandment: love one another as I love you...This I command you: love one another."

"It is typical to think of love as a feeling, the way we feel about a spouse, a parent, a child, a close friend. Yes, this is love, but this is not the sense that Jesus is using when he says, 'Love one another as I love you' (John 15:12). Love in this sense is a permanent condition, a part of one's character. As a part of our character, it can't help but flow out of us when we interact with others."

Medical Mission How You Can Help

The Medical Mission Committee has reviewed needs and logistics for our trip to José Galvez, Peru. Our financial support already received will allow us to purchase discounted medications from non-profit organizations. We're counting on the ever-willing parishioners of OLMC to help us fill some gaps.

During the month of May, we are asking for specific donations each weekend. Generic items are welcome. One important note: Items must be unopened and cannot expire BEFORE April 1, 2019 – six months after our mission ends.

Weekend of May 5/6

Acetaminophen (Tylenol):
500 mg caplets or 325 mg tablets for adults
Acetaminophen liquid for children
Ibuprofen (Motrin) liquid gels:
200 mg for adults and 100 mg for children

Weekend of May 12/13

Multivitamins

Weekend of May 19/20

Cold and cough treatment

Weekend of May 26/27

Personal care items and reading glasses

Donated items can be placed in the boxes in the narthex or by the elevator. We are very appreciative of your support. This is truly a community effort and the Academy children are collecting items as well. If you have any questions, contact Rosemary Russell at rosemaryrussell@gmail.com.

For a list of items being collected by OLMC Academy, please see the Academy section of this bulletin, page 9.

The "Rite Way": How to Receive the Eucharist

The Eucharist is a universal prayer of thanksgiving to God. It's important that we as Catholics are together in our understanding of how to receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

Communicants are asked to respectfully process to the front of the church with their hands folded in a sign of prayer. Because communicants are receiving Jesus himself, the U.S. bishops have instituted as a norm a slight bow of reverence immediately preceding reception of the Eucharist.

The person distributing Communion will say to each person receiving, "The Body of Christ" or "The Blood of Christ." Each communicant should clearly respond, "Amen" to affirm and proclaim his or her belief that the consecrated bread and wine are truly the Body and Blood of Christ.

A communicant may receive the Host in the hand or on the tongue. When Communion is received in the hand, the following directions apply. If the person receiving is right-handed, the left hand should rest upon the right. The person distributing will lay the Host in the palm of the left hand. The Host is then taken by the right hand to the mouth by the communicant. If the person receiving is left-handed, this is reversed. Communicants should not reach out with their fingers to take the Host from the person distributing. When a communicant is receiving under the form of wine, communicants are not permitted to dip the Host into the chalice.

Upon returning to their seats, communicants should offer a prayer of thanksgiving to God.
