WELCOME

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Mount Carmel,

Today I want to flash back a week to the celebration of our All Souls Mass at 7:00 PM on November 2. We had the names of 57 persons inscribed in our Book of the Dead. Each one was prayed for by name at the All Souls Mass.

Many family members were present to join in our remembrance. I believe that this is a very important statement in fulfillment of our pledges to pray for our departed.

I have been asked to highlight one of those names and I am pleased to do so.

Pete Camino died on October 12, 2018 and his funeral Mass was celebrated at St. John the Evangelist Church in Bergenfield.

Pete and his family were not actually registered parishioners here, but, as many of you know, he took up the collection at our 5:00 PM Mass for 35 years. I asked his wife to join in at our All Souls Mass and she did so. May Pete and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

May I use this example to highlight an ongoing need? We always need ushers at every Mass. Most of the time our Masses are adequately covered, but we do need some new ushers at the 12 Noon Mass.

Ushers act as first responders in manifesting hospitality and they help seat people, especially on crowded occasions. They know where the restrooms are and where the heart defibrillator is. And, of course, they take up the collection and help with the orderly reception of Holy Communion.

If you are willing to help in this ministry, please let it be known. And, if you see we are short at any Mass, please jump up to help at the needed times.

Pete Camino did exactly that for 35 years. May he rest in peace. And may some of you step up to follow in his proud footsteps.

Sincerely yours in Christ and Our Lady of Mount Carmel,
fr. Dan

TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Sunday, November 11th

Mark 12:38-44

“A poor widow also came and put in two small coins ... [Jesus said to his disciples,] ‘Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury ... she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood.’”

“We are told that the widow in the Gospel has no more than these two small coins: Jesus says she ‘has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood’ (Mark 12:44). She has given all that she has to God. She has faith that God will provide. Like Jesus, she is a model of complete generosity and faith.”

WEEKLY RUNDOWN

For the past 26 years, Bronx-based Siena House has been serving the needs of homeless, single mothers and children from New York City...

Twenty-seven women, who are either pregnant or with a child under the age of three, are provided with shelter, a safe environment, limited on-site child care, women's health workshops, creative workshops, and support and guidance at Siena House. These women are also assisted in acquiring and maintaining permanent housing after their time there.

Sr. Mary Doris, along with several other Dominican Sisters of Blauvelt, founded the shelter in 1990 under the sponsorship of Tolentine Zeiser Community Life Center and served as Director ever since. Before she began her work at Siena House, Sister Mary served as a High School Equivalency teacher for nine years in the Highbridge area. It was during that time that she became aware of the struggles of young mothers who were trying to complete their education while trying to find a safe place to live. This awareness and a commitment to the homeless made by the Blauvelt Dominican Sisters at their Chapter of 1987, led her to found Siena House.

Through the years, several sisters have served with Sister Mary at Siena House while others have supported Siena House with prayers and donations. Currently, Sister Cecilia Byrnes serves as the Assistant Director of Siena House. Sister Laura Fitzgerald is a Housing Specialist and Sister Maureen Gibbons is the Business Manager.

No two days are ever the same at Siena House. "With 27 young mothers who are pregnant or have a young baby, there is always a situation needing attention," she commented. If a women moves out of Siena House, her room is typically filled the same day. Sister Mary acknowledged, "One of the hardest things [about working at Siena House] is the pressure of trying to move our families into suitable, low income housing, of which there is very little."

Hearing from former residents is one of the most rewarding aspects of Sister Mary's work:

"I am a former resident of Siena House. During 1997, I was pregnant with my son and I gave birth to him while I still resided there ... I was able to obtain Section 8 Housing during my stay, which helped me provide a roof over my son's head during difficult times and limited finances ... I just wanted to say THANK YOU for taking me in during the most vulnerable time in my life and giving me hope for the future. I now am the Personal Training Director of a well-known Fitness Club, a homeowner, and a mother of two. It has not been a straight shot for me, but I can't forget where I came from. Keep doing great things impacting young women's lives (and subsequently) the lives of their children. I will forever be grateful for all of you!"

Along with her work at Siena House, Sister Mary is known internationally for her participation in the Lullaby Project. In 2013, Siena House was invited by Carnegie Hall to participate in the Lullaby Project. Although there was initial hesitancy from the mothers about their ability to compose a lullaby for their babies, the individual artists at Carnegie Hall were able to connect with them on a one-on-one basis to encourage them to write a poem, letter or just hopes for their baby. With great sensitivity and gentleness, this resulted in the creation of beautiful music.

Sister Mary noted, "In the midst of all the stress and struggles of our young mothers in choosing to keep their children while living in a shelter, the Lullaby Project provided a time for them to cherish their babies and to recognize the beauty and honor of Motherhood. This past year, Sister Mary was honored by Voices of Faith for her work at Siena House and the Lullaby Project in a ceremony in Rome, Italy.

Even with all of the success that Siena House has experienced under Sister Mary's leadership, she is still looking for more ways to offer services to benefit the residents. She remarked, "I would love to see us be able to provide more programs to help our young moms complete their high school education and acquire those skills which will help them to find stable employment opportunities."

A Prayer for Our Veterans

Dear Lord,

Today we honor our veterans,
worthy men and women who gave their best when they were called upon to serve and protect their country.

We pray that you will bless them, Lord,
for their unselfish service,
bless them abundantly for the hardships
they faced, for the sacrifices they made.

We respect them, we thank them,
we honor them, we are proud of them.
And we pray that you will watch over these special people and bless them with peace and happiness.

OFFICE OF CONCERN FOOD COLLECTION

The Office of Concern monthly food collection is this weekend. The Office of Concern is also gearing up for their annual Thanksgiving food collection of non-perishable items and frozen turkeys. Non-perishable items needed are: gravy, dried potatoes, canned yams, stuffing mix, rice, canned vegetables (baked beans, peas, green beans, corn), canned fruit, cranberry sauce, pasta, canned or bottled fruit juices. Donations can be dropped off in the elevator lobby. Please see the flyer is today's bulletin.

Of all the gifts that God gives us the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of love, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.
