WELCOME

A Message From The Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Mount Carmel,

Today I ask you to join me in welcoming several guests to our parish in the coming days.

This Sunday evening we will once again host homeless families as part of the Family Promise Homeless Family Program of Bergen County. At this moment we expect two mothers and four children to be with us. We will provide dinner and a place to sleep for the next week. Elliot Guerra has organized another blessed week of meals, entertainment and overnight hosts.

I consider this one of our proudest ministries. We are so obviously blessed. One of our greatest blessings is your willingness to share your time and talents near and far. I am most grateful to Elliot for leading this outreach the past three years and to each of you who continue to demonstrate that all are welcome at OLMC.

We will also be hosting the MarbleJam program led by Joey Travolta beginning tomorrow and running for the next two weeks in the entire school building.

Next Sunday, August 4 we will welcome Fr. Nakka David Raju from the diocese of Vijayawada, India who will be speaking at all Masses asking for our support. Your financial support of next weekend's special second collection is appreciated.

The week after that we will welcome Fr. Mark Schaffner, O.Carm. as our new pastor. Fr. Mark will take over on August 15 and will arrive a few days prior to that date to get settled.

I will be presiding at the 10 AM and 12 Noon Masses on August 11 and we will have a parish coffee in between those two Masses.

Sincerely yours in Christ and Our Lady of Mount Carmel,
fr. Dan

TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Sunday, July 28th

Luke 11:1-13

“And [Jesus] said to [his disciples], ‘Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived at my house from a journey and I have nothing to offer him,’. . . ‘I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence.’”

“When we are desperate to obtain or achieve something, we persist. Persistence in prayer indicates the importance we place upon what we pray for. In Luke’s Gospel, Jesus prays persistently. . . Jesus’ persistence in prayer, therefore, has led to [The Lord’s Prayer] we persist in saying today.”

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

The Church’s social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. The following themes are at the heart of Catholic social teaching:

“Imagine yourself always to be the servant of all, and look upon all as if they were Christ our Lord in person. And thus shall you do him honor and reverence.”

St. Teresa of Avila

Homeless Family Program

Hosted by OLMC

July 28 – August 4, 2019

This week OLMC is hosting working homeless families as part of the temporary housing program run by Family Promise of Bergen County.

Two women and a total of four children (all under the age of ten) are staying in our Academy this week. We are providing shelter, dinner, breakfast and supplying lunch. The families eat and sleep here during the evening hours; during the day they work and their children attend daycare/summer camp.

Please offer up the volunteers, organizers and families in your prayers during this time of service that the Spirit of God fosters within us a successful event.

May OLMC continue to be a place that “No matter who you are, no matter what you’ve done, no matter where you’re from, no matter where you’re going, no matter how good or bad things seem, you are always welcome.”

Family Promise

The Family Promise Network is a Sheltering Program for working homeless families with dependent children. Local congregations around Bergen County host up to 14 people at a time on a weekly rotating schedule. Families are provided with safe and comfortable shelter, three meals, companionship, and support. Host congregation volunteers, along with others from neighboring congregations, interact with families, play with the children, and act as overnight hosts.

During the day families have access to the Nancy S. Woods Family Center, from which they leave for work, school, or daycare. Showers, laundry facilities, and computers for homework and job searches are available. Family Case Managers work with all families on a regular basis to set goals and develop a plan that empowers them to return to self-sufficiency. Volunteers in the Network and the community at large assist Family Promise staff develop resources for jobs, educational opportunities, affordable housing, reliable transportation, dependable daycare, and other necessities.

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.”

(Luke 11:9)

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

Thank You From Siena House. . .

“Dear Father O’Neill,

It is with deep gratitude that I write to acknowledge receipt of the Most Outstanding check in the amount of $23,000 which was raised at the Ladies’ Night Out event on May 10, 2019 for the benefit of our Shelter this year. The check was hand delivered to me by Jeanne Steifel on June 8, 2019.

Thank you, Father Dan, for the use of the School Auditorium for the evening of the big event. It is such a perfect space for the occasion and is always set up so beautifully. The young people who volunteer their time to help with the serving of the food as well as assisting with the prizes and setting up are wonderful examples of the goodness that they have witnessed.

On behalf of the Staff, mothers and babies of our shelter, I extend my deep appreciation to you and all those who made the night possible, especially the Siena Women’s Ministry Group led by Kirsten Jaeger. These women continue to provide support for Siena House, giving of their time and energy to remember our mothers and babies all through the year at Christmas, Valentine’s Day, Easter, and Mothers’ Day.

May God shower His abundant blessings on you and all those who have been so caring and generous to Siena House over all these years especially the parishioners and friends of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

With gratitude,
Sr. Mary Doris, O.P.
Director”
