TODAY’S GOSPEL MESSAGE
Sunday, October 27th
Luke 18:9-14

[Jesus said] ‘. . . for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.’

‘The one who humbles oneself,’ Jesus says, ‘will be exalted’ (Luke 18:14). Perhaps this is because the humble person is not seeking exaltation in the first place. Those who seek exaltation will never find it. Jesus, on the other hand, humbled himself to take on our humanity, then humbled himself further in dying on the cross.’

DAILY READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Monday  Eph 2:19-22; Luke 6:12-16
Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles (Feast) – “Simon is surnamed the Canaanite or the Zealot, a name that probably alludes to a real association, or at least sympathy, with the Zealot movement that desired a revolutionary overthrow of the occupying Roman authority. Jude (Judas) is also called Thaddeus. According to tradition, both suffered martyrdom, and Jude became a patron saint of hopeless cases.” Source: Living With Christ, October 2019

Tuesday  Rom 8:18-25; Luke 13:18-21

Wednesday  Rom 8:26-30; Luke 13:22-30

Friday  Rev 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matt 5:1-12a
All Saints Day (Holy Day of Obligation) – “This feast, honoring all the saints of the Church, known and unknown, provides an opportunity to reflect on the nature of sainthood and celebrate the exemplary faithfulness of holy men and women of every place and time, whose lives and deeds inspire us.” Source: Living With Christ, November 2019

Saturday  Wis 3:1-9; Rom 5:5-11; John 6:37-40
All Souls’ Day – “Since the early Church, Christians have prayed for the dead, and in 988, St. Odilo, abbot of the French monastery of Cluny, established the tradition of keeping, ‘with joyous affection, the memory of all the faithful departed who have lived from the beginning of the world until the end.’ By the fourteenth century, the commemoration had spread and was universally accepted in the Latin Church.” Source: Living With Christ, November 2019

GIVING & GRATITUDE

An Evening in Peru

An Evening in Peru, “Una Tarde en Peru,” was an evening that brought together the members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel’s parish and school community. It was a celebration in preparation of all the men and women volunteers who would be traveling this Saturday to minister to the needy of Peru.

We would like to extend a heartfelt “Thank You” to all who participated in making this event so successful. Whether you attended, donated some of the Peruvian-inspired foods and delicious international desserts, entertained us, purchased raffle tickets, decorated or cleaned up, you helped to make this event memorable.

Very special “Thank Yous” to Meddy Hellman and her team who delivered an amazing International Dessert Room for all of us to enjoy and indulge! And to Mary Ann Nelson, Roxanne Kougasian, Terri Silvestri and Elliot Guerra for helping with reservations and getting the word out.

An evening like this is only possible when our community comes together to share its collective time, talent and treasure. Blessings to all who made our vision a stunning reality!

Mount Carmel Proud,
Rose Ann T. Miglietta and Elena Ugarte
Co-Chairs, An Evening in Peru

The Thanksgiving collection of frozen turkeys will take place before and after the following Masses:
5 PM Mass
Saturday, November 23rd
8 AM, 10 AM & 12 NOON Masses
Sunday, November 24th

“. . . for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” (Luke 18:14)

“Pride and ego are the root cause of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is better than anyone else and your money gives you status is another way of making those things “gods” before God. Remember all those gifts were God-given. Instead we should be humbled by God’s abundant generosity and our hearts should overflow with gratitude.”
