Our Lady of Mount Carmel Mission Statement

“We are the Roman Catholic Community of

Our Lady of Mount Carmel based in Tenafly, New Jersey.

Our mission is the promotion of the holiness of life through the celebration of the Sacraments, the sharing of the Gospel and the promotion of Catholic values.

We offer pastoral care through ministries that provide education, healing, spiritual growth and social outreach in the Carmelite tradition.”

*“No matter who you are, no matter what you’ve done, no matter where you’re from, no matter where you’re going,
no matter how good or bad things seem,
you are always welcome.”*

TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGESunday, November 7th

Mark 12:38-44

“Jesus . . . observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, ‘Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood.’”

“The widow in today’s Gospel had no ‘safety net’ to rely on, from either government assistance or institutional programs. She was left to rely on the generosity of others. Yet, it was her own generosity that made her a model of Jesus’ self-sacrifice.”

DAILY READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Monday Wisdom 1:1-7; Luke 17:1-6

Tuesday Ezek 47:1-2,8-9,12; 1 Cor 3:9c-11,16-17; John 2:13-22

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica (Feast) – “The cathedral church of Rome (the pope’s local parish as bishop of Rome) was dedicated by Pope Sylvester I in 324. Originally called the Most Holy Savior, it is called St. John Lateran because it was built on property donated by the Laterani family and its baptistry is named after St. John. It is ‘the mother and head of all churches of the city and the world.’”

Wednesday Wisdom 6:1-11; Luke 17:11-19

Saint Leo the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church (Memorial) – “As pope, Leo the Great was known for his peacekeeping efforts, in particular for his encounter with Attila the Hun, whom he persuaded not to plunder Rome. His writings include pastoral sermons on faith and charity and on the incarnation.”

Thursday Wisdom 7:22b—8:1; Luke 17:20-25

Saint Martin of Tours, Bishop (Memorial) – “As bishop of Tours [France], he worked ceaselessly to spread the faith. An excellent administrator, he invented the division of dioceses into parishes.”

Friday Wisdom 13:1-9; Luke 17:26-37

Saint Josaphat, Bishop and Martyr (Memorial) – “John Kuncewicz was born in present-day Ukraine. Upon entering the Order of St. Basil, he chose the name Josaphat. Ordained a priest of the Byzantine rite and archbishop of Polotsk, Russia, he worked for the renewal of the diocese and for the union of the Ukrainian Church with Rome. He was slain by his opponents. Josaphat became the first Eastern saint to be formally canonized, in 1867.”

Saturday Wisdom 18:14-16; 19:6-9; Luke 18:1-8

Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini, Virgin (Memorial) – “Maria Francesca Cabrini, born in Italy, began teaching in an orphanage at age twenty-four; six years later, she founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. In 1889, at the request of Pope Leo XIII, she traveled to the United States to work with Italian immigrants. Her congregation spread throughout the U.S., Italy, South and Central America, and England. In 1946, she became the first American citizen to be canonized.”

“All Shall Be Well”

by Deacon Lex Ferraiola

“All shall be well, all shall be well, all manner of thing shall be well.”

Those are the words of Julian of Norwich, 14th century holy woman and Christian mystic. Julian was inspired when she wrote those reassuring words. But her words are often misunderstood to be merely an optimistic counterweight to the trials and tribulations of life. Rather, her meaning comes from what her biographer Veronica Mary Rolf attributes to “her courageous faith, her hard-won hope, and most of all, her profound realization that ultimately, because God is love, all shall be well.”

Julian’s theology grew out of her own mystical experiences when, at the age of thirty, she fell ill with the Black Plague that was sweeping Europe. Her writings emphasize the goodness and love of God, especially in times of great suffering and darkness. The Renovare spiritual direction team cites joy as the main point throughout all of Julian’s writing: a joy that draws one into a deep understanding of the goodness of God.

Though we go through the fire and all may, at times, seem lost, God’s love surrounds us and is bringing us home; a home where, in the end, either in this life or the next, that which is broken will be made whole again, and all shall be well. Our soul intuitively knows this, and, in moments of spiritual clarity, our intellect knows it as well.

This truth has been reinforced for me over the last few years. My soulmate, my sweetheart Wanda, is undergoing treatment for a rare and aggressive uterine cancer. Two years of chemotherapy were unsuccessful, and she is now undergoing immunotherapy. I myself have been living with progressive and incurable Parkinson’s disease.

Illness has brought us challenges but also gifts. There is clarity that there’s more to life than our personal time and space; and there is knowledge of the fullness of life and love in the present moment. There is trust that God unconditionally loves us, and that either in this life or the next, God will find a way to heal us and make us whole. There is the knowledge and the trust that all shall be well. Julian of Norwich was so right.

This brings to mind a reflection I previously shared with the parishioners of Mount Carmel about a family project I was finally able to complete. About 20 years ago, I selected the best photographs from 65 albums of family pictures and digitized them onto one three-hour video with background music. I called it The Ferraiola Family Video Special.

The video begins with photos of my wife Wanda’s and my parents and grandparents and scenes from our childhood. It goes on through our teens, our high school romance, the early years of our marriage, the arrival of each of our four children and our grandchildren, and many special moments from our life together over the past 54 years.

Sitting with Wanda in our family room and watching the video is a real joy for me. Seeing our marriage and our children weave and grow together across the years fills me with thanksgiving for my life.

But along with the joyful times there have been difficult days: the challenges of raising four children, of work, of illness, of life. I know that if I could drill down and see scenes that didn’t make it to the camera, I would see moments of anxiety and doubt. But sitting in our family room with my arm around Wanda, smiling and laughing as we watch 54 years of life and love roll across the TV screen, it’s clear to me that God’s grace and love have always been with us.

Now think about your own life and the life of every person who has ever lived and will live in the future and of all the videos that could be made from all those individual stories. What if they were made and someone edited them together into one big video called The Story of the Human Family? And what if someday, after we’ve died and been reunited with our loved ones who have gone before us, God gets us all together into that big family room in heaven to watch The Story of the Human Family?

As we watch the story unfold, we would see moments of goodness, kindness, and love. Sadly, we would also see moments of anger, pain, and sorrow. But sitting with our loved ones in the presence of God, beyond the boundaries of time and space and the limits of human understanding, we would know that God’s grace had carried us through.

But we’re not there yet; and that’s where faith comes in. You see, we’re here in 2021 and we’re still making the videos. We may be in the middle of a happy time or a painful time; we don’t know what tomorrow will bring, and we certainly don’t know how the story will end.

But we are here today because we have faith. We trust that no matter what difficulties or tragedies befall us as individuals, as a family, a church, or a nation, they are only isolated moments in time. We trust that in the end God’s grace will pull us through, heal us and fix whatever is broken in our lives.

Some day we will all gather in God’s eternal family room with our loved ones, the ones here now and the ones who have gone home before us. And we will watch a wonderful story, the story of our journey home. And we will know that we were never, ever alone; that God was always walking beside us, holding our hand.

In the end, all shall be well, all shall be well, all manner of thing shall be well.

Thursday, November 11th at 11 A.M.

Everyone is invited to the Auditorium for a special service in honor of our veterans. Thank you to all the men and women who have served in our country’s Armed Forces.

“Heavenly Father, thank you for America’s heroes who have served our country so faithfully. We honor our veterans for their sacrifice to our country and for their courage and integrity. May every citizen realize that our country is better and safer because of their valiant duty.

We praise You for all veterans who have gone before us in eternal rest. We especially pray for those veterans who made the ultimate sacrifice while defending our country. Bless their families and comfort them with the thankful prayers of a grateful nation.

Almighty God, You gave us Your only Son, Jesus. Allow us to follow in His example and work to create a more loving world. Let us not perpetrate war but safeguard peace and preserve Your gifts of equality and freedom. Through the efforts of our veterans, help us continue to promote justice in all nations.

We thank You for our veterans, past and present, and for the knowledge that You are with us in all things. Amen.”

Continuous Religious Instruction
For The Faith Development Of Your Child

The Religious Education Program is a curriculum of continuous religious instruction for students. Attendance at each grade level is important in order to establish a firm foundation in the faith, build upon it at each grade level, and prepare for the Sacraments. Visit our website www.olmc.us, click on 'LEARN', then 'Religious Education' to register.

Religious Education Classes Are In Session!

Class Schedule

- Sunday, November 7th (8:45-9:55 AM)
- Tuesday, November 9th (3:30-4:45 PM)
- Sunday, November 14th (8:45-9:55 AM)
- Tuesday, November 16th (3:30-4:45 PM)

Face Masks Required: Please be sure your child wears a face mask to class.

Making time for your child's faith formation is possible. Families are busier than ever. That's why it's important to review your priorities.

- >Think about the values you want to instill in your child (for example, honesty and respect). Then, think about your child's activities. How do they support the development of these values?
- >Cut back on unneeded activities. For example, limit time spent watching TV or playing video games.
- >Use a calendar or daily planner to block out time for faith formation classes, worship services, other church activities, and family faith-building.

The Fall Drama: J. M. Barrie’s *Peter Pan

The Darling children love to hear of Peter Pan’s adventures during his visits through the open window of the nursery. Then one night after Nana has taken his shadow and Wendy has sewn it back on, Peter Pan and Tinker Bell whisk the children off to Neverland to be part of the adventures. Wendy, John, and Michael become friends with the Lost Boys and Princess Tiger Lily, and Wendy becomes everyone’s mother. When the evil Captain Hook captures Wendy and the Lost Boys, Peter Pan comes to their rescue. Together with the ticking crocodile, Peter Pan puts Captain Hook in his place and returns the Darling children to their home.

The collection for the Office of Concern Food Pantry is NEXT WEEKEND. Please place non-perishable items in OLMC's elevator lobby during the week for pick-up by the Office of Concern. Monetary donations can be placed in the baskets labeled for the Office of Concern located in our church next weekend. Thank you for your generosity and support.

Amazon.com donates 0.5% of the sale price of most items sold by Amazon and purchased through the Amazon Smile website to a designated charity.

Shop www.smile.amazon.com and designate OLMC (listed in Amazon's directory as "Our Lady of Mt Carmel Church") as the recipient. The account holder uses the same login and account information.
