A Letter from the Pastor

Fr. Richard Supple, O.Carm.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Mount Carmel,

In the language of the Church's liturgy, Easter is the great "feast of joy" that celebrates the newness of life that bursts forth for all believers in the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Church proclaims the good news for all to hear: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad!" In fact, we celebrate this great feast not just on this day, but for the whole week! We call this "the octave of Easter," and during the coming week, we will listen to some of the most beautiful Scripture readings in the New Testament. The central message of these readings is that Jesus is indeed alive and risen from the dead, and we, his disciples, are invited to look at our lives from a completely new perspective. We, too, are raised from the depths of sin which caused spiritual death and called to live this new life as witnesses to our belief in the resurrection.

On behalf of Fr. Anthony, Fr. Emmett, Sr. Regina, and all of the staff of OLMC Parish, I want to wish you a very happy Easter! May the promise of new life with Jesus move you today to hear his desire for you, his thirst for you. May you be moved to look deeply into the eyes of those you meet this day and see the Christ, not a stranger, but the Christ who comes to us today in the people we meet. May you have a true encounter with the risen One as did those early disciples. And may you know his deep desire for you and share that joy with all whom you encounter.

May God bless you always,
Fr. Richard

Christ is Risen!

Welcome to
Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church
as we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Regina Caeli

- V. Queen of Heaven rejoice, alleluia.
R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.
- V. Has risen, as He said, alleluia.
R. Pray for us to God, alleluia.
- V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.
R. Because our Lord is truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Regina Caeli is an ancient Latin hymn honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is prayed in place of the Angelus during the Easter season beginning on Holy Saturday through Pentecost Sunday.

“The Gift of the Risen Christ

The life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me” (Galatians 2:20). What is this life? It is God’s own life. And who brings us this life? It is the Holy Spirit, the gift of the Risen Christ. The Spirit leads us into the divine life as true children of God, as sons and daughters in the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ. Are we open to the Holy Spirit? Do we let ourselves be guided by him?”

“He is risen! Our Savior has conquered death and been raised to new life. Since we are all baptized into his death, we are all raised to new life in him. God’s love and mercy has been poured out on us all, for us all, so that we may live, as Paul wrote, ‘in newness of life.’ In that newness of life, we come together to celebrate at this most glorious feast, singing of our joy and thanksgiving. Alleluia!”

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him.” So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

A Message From Fr. Anthony . . .

I want to share with you a significant announcement. I have been asked by my Provincial to become pastor of our parish in Florida and, after much thought and prayer, I have said yes. That means of course that, sadly, and with mixed emotions, I will be leaving Tenafly and the plan is that I will move to Florida sometime in June, to begin my new responsibilities there on July 1st.

It has been a privilege to get to know so many of you in my years here in Tenafly, and I am a better person and a better priest for getting to know so many of you. Be assured that I will keep you all in my prayers and, as I undertake this new responsibility of learning to become a pastor, I would ask for your prayers in the coming months and years ahead.

Thank you and God bless.

“The Cross Is A Love Letter From God”

by Deacon Lex Ferraiola

If you enter our church between Easter Sunday and Pentecost, you'll see a very different image above the altar. Instead of the cross with the image of the Crucified Christ, beaten and broken and in the arms of death, you'll see the Risen Christ, triumphant and ascending in all his glory.

For many years I preferred that image of the Risen Christ. I wished that we would keep it up there, over the altar, all year long. But as I grew in my faith I came to see and appreciate the powerful message of the Crucified Christ, beaten and twisted on the cross. It tells us that we are not alone; that God is by our side through all that we encounter, all that we endure here in life.

Sometime life doesn't make sense. There is chaos, there is darkness; bad things, inexplicable things happen. As an individual, as a family, a nation, maybe even as a parish community, we suffer great losses, deep wounds, even contradictions to our faith. The symbol of our Christian faith is itself a contradiction: the Cross, two opposing beams of wood made from the tree of life and yet used to torture and destroy life. And in the center of the contradiction, in the center of the Cross, we find God in human form.

But the message of the cross is hope. It tells us that we are not alone; that God is with us in the chaos and the darkness; he is present in the pain, the loss, the suffering; he is there at the center of the contradiction, at the center of the cross.

And some day, once we are free of the constraints of human existence and the limitations of human understanding, it will all make sense. There will be no more loss, no more wounds, no more contradictions, just God's love for all eternity.

The Cross with the image of the Crucified Christ is a love letter from God. As we go through the storms of life, let us keep reading that love letter and listening to the message it contains. With the Cross God is whispering to us:

I am with you in the chaos and the darkness.

I am here at the center of your cross.

I love you and am with you for always . . .
