TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Sunday, October 1st
Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not,' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir,' but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?' They answered, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

Reflection

"Jesus invited everyone to repent and hear the good news that he was sent to bring. May we aspire to mirror that same attitude in how we treat others."

“Bartimaeus and the Miracle of Faith”

by Deacon Lex Ferrauiola

Based on Mark 10:46-52

“Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me.”

I’m probably not the only person reading this blog who has been in that dark place that imprisoned Bartimaeus. I’m probably not the only one of us who once sat curled up by the roadside of life begging Jesus for help. While our darkness may not have been physical like the blindness that afflicted Bartimaeus, it was, nevertheless, just as deep, just as crippling, just as painful. Who among us has never experienced his or her own personal time of darkness?

That darkness can take many forms. It can be the broken heart that remains after the loss of someone we have loved very deeply, or the sadness and fear that walks hand in hand into our mind when we suffer with anxiety and depression. It can be the news that we have cancer, or the pain and immobility of crippling arthritis or MS, or any of the many illnesses and conditions that afflict us human beings. It can be the fear and hopelessness that comes from losing employment, or the financial panic we experience when we see our savings, the funds we managed to put aside for our kids’ education or our own retirement, disappear in the face of a worldwide recession.

“Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me.”

In the above Gospel, Bartimaeus called out to Jesus from within his own personal darkness. And Jesus heard. He stopped, turned back to where Bartimaeus was sitting, and called to him,

“What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked.

“Master, I want to see, I want this darkness to leave me.”

Continued . . .

And Jesus tells him, “Go on your way, your faith has saved you.”

Miraculously, the darkness is lifted and Bartimaeus can see. He throws his cloak aside and gets up off the ground. But instead of going his own way, he makes a choice and chooses to follow Jesus. And so it is with each of us.

In one way or another, all of us have had personal times of darkness, times when we called out to Jesus for help. And Jesus did help us. And like Bartimaeus, we each made a choice: rather than going our own way after the darkness was lifted, we chose to follow Jesus – to follow him right up to this moment.

But we know that in life darkness comes and goes. That roadside cure wasn’t a one-time event for Bartimaeus, and neither was our own personal cure. I believe that, like us, Bartimaeus continued to have good days and bad days and times of darkness. But once called by Jesus, he – and we – experienced a miracle.

That miracle wasn’t a one-time cure against anything bad that might ever happen to us; no, that miracle was the gift of faith – faith to keep following Jesus, day after day through all the ups and downs, no matter what life hits us with.

Real faith, like the faith that saved Bartimaeus, is not the belief that we will never ever again have a bad day, never again be depressed or afraid, never again get sick, never ever lose a loved one, never reach the end of our earthly journey. Real faith is the conviction in our heart that whatever may come, we will get through it with God, that whether in this life or the next we will be healed of all darkness, all brokenness, we will be made whole. And my sisters and brothers, each of us has that faith – whether we actually realize it or not – or we wouldn’t have read this far.

As we go on with our life today and continue to follow Jesus, let us pray for each other that the miracle of faith be kept burning brightly in our hearts; and that the brightness of that miracle will dispel any darkness we may yet encounter in life.

And let never, ever forget that Jesus is walking with us through all the darkness, all the brokenness, loving us, holding our hand, leading us safely home.

PRAYING THE ROSARY

Devotion to Mary is an important part of the prayer life of the Church. October is the month of the Rosary. Let us turn to Mary for guidance and protection as we pray the Rosary and meditate on its mysteries – Joyful, Luminous, Sorrowful, Glorious.

How to Pray the Rosary:

1. Make the Sign of the Cross.
2. Holding the Crucifix, say the Apostles' Creed.
3. For each single bead, pray the Lord's Prayer.
4. For each group of three or ten beads, pray the Hail Mary for each bead. A group of ten beads is called a decade. Contemplate one mystery for each decade.

The Mysteries of the Rosary

The Joyful Mysteries

1. The Annunciation
2. The Visitation
3. The Nativity
4. The Presentation of Jesus in the Temple
5. The Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple

The Luminous Mysteries

1. The Baptism at the Jordan
2. The Miracle at Cana
3. The Proclamation of the Kingdom of God
4. The Transfiguration
5. The Institution of the Eucharist

The Sorrowful Mysteries

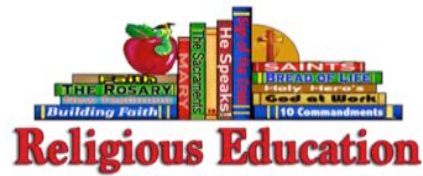

1. The Agony in the Garden
2. The Scourging at the Pillar
3. The Crowning with Thorns
4. The Carrying of the Cross
5. The Crucifixion and Death

The Glorious Mysteries

1. The Resurrection
2. The Ascension
3. The Descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost
4. The Assumption of Mary
5. The Crowning of the Blessed Virgin

5. After each decade of Hail Marys is completed, pray the Glory Be.
6. End the Rosary by praying the Hail Holy Queen. . .

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy. Hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To you do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Amen.

Go to 'SACRAMENTS' and then 'Confirmation' or complete the registration form that was mailed to your home and return it to the Religious Education Office.

Feast of the Guardian Angels
October 2nd

“The concept of an angel assigned to guide and nurture each human being is a development of Catholic doctrine and piety based on Scripture but not directly drawn from it. Jesus’ words in Matthew 18:10 best support the belief: ‘See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father.’”

2023 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal

The Archdiocesan Annual Appeal is a testament to our faith in action. It supports the ministries that bring Christ to those in need, including our sisters and brothers who are distressed by food insecurity, poverty, and homelessness. The Annual Appeal also supports the formation of our seminarians and our evangelization efforts through diverse ministry offices and multi-ethnic apostolates serving thousands of men, women, and children, which are critical for the future of our Church.

The Office of Concern Food Pantry at St. Cecilia Church, Englewood

NEXT WEEKEND is the collection for the Office of Concern.

The Office of Concern was started in 1980 to help a few families who were displaced by a fire. From that beginning, the Office of Concern has become the largest single location family food pantry in Bergen County. For over 40 years, the volunteers at the Office of Concern Food Pantry have been assisting families in Bergen County with weekly supplemental food, currently serving hundreds of families living below the federal poverty level. The Office of Concern at St. Cecilia accepts donations of non-perishable items. Non-perishable items should be placed in the elevator lobby at OLMC. The Office of Concern also accepts donations of diapers, baby wipes and personal care items.

Monetary donations should be in an envelope marked for the Office of Concern and placed in the donation baskets in the church.

Thank you to all who donate to the Office of Concern to help those in our community.

React less. Plan more.
