TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGESunday, November 26th

Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another . . . Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you . . . Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.' Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you accursed . . . Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.' And these will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

Reflection

"How can we gain the kingdom? Easy. Give food to Jesus when he is hungry, drink when he is thirsty. Welcome him and clothe him as a poor stranger. Care for him when he is ill. Visit him when he is in prison. Our eyes of faith must look harder. With eyes of faith, we can see Christ in everyone in need."

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

On this final Sunday of the liturgical year the readings concern the end of time and Christ's role as king and judge. Most solemnities are focused on biblical events. In contrast, "Christ the King" is focused on an idea. The original motivation for the feast was to celebrate the dominion of Christ that transcends national boundaries and that makes war a sacrilege against Christ's body. On this solemnity, pray for nations tormented by war and terrorism, pray for victims of acts of terror and of war.

FIRST FRIDAY EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION Friday, December 1st

after the 8:30 AM Mass
followed by Benediction at 3 PM

What is Eucharistic Adoration? A priest or deacon removes the sacred host from the tabernacle and places it in the monstrance on the altar for adoration by the faithful. Eucharistic Adoration is adoring, or honoring, the Eucharistic Presence of Christ.

Please call Mary Buchanan at 201-871-9667 to schedule a time to spend in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

Family Promise Walk-in Dinner

Join us in OLMC's kitchen for about an hour and a half following the 8 AM Mass on Sunday, December 10th to prepare for the Walk-in Dinner to be held on Monday, December 11th. Families of all ages can help! Volunteers must bring a hat or head wrap to wear. Please contact Elliot Guerra at guerra@academyolmc.org if interested in helping in some way.

The Mystery of the Eucharist

"From the very beginning, the Church has believed and celebrated according to the teaching of Jesus himself: Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him (John 6:54-56).

How can Jesus Christ be truly present in what still appears to be bread and wine? In the liturgical act known as the epiclesis, the bishop or priest, speaking in the person of Jesus Christ, calls upon the Father to send down his Holy Spirit to change the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ, and this change occurs through the institution narrative, by the power of the words of Christ pronounced by the celebrant.

The reality that, in the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ without ceasing to appear as bread and wine to our five senses is one of the central mysteries of the Catholic faith. This faith is a doorway through which we, like the saints and mystics before us, may enter into a deeper perception of the mercy and love manifested in and through Christ's sacramental presence in our midst."

Tips For Growing In Holiness As A Family

"Ordinary family practices — displaying Christian symbols in the home, saying grace in the restaurant, helping the poor, and telling stories of the saints—are ways we pass on our faith to our children and grandchildren. Faith-filled celebrations of the Sacraments, holy days, and holidays can evoke strong memories and feelings years after they occur. Research shows that the biggest predictor of adult religious practice is being able to recall one's practice of religion in childhood, especially daily conversations in the home about God and faith."

The celebration of First Reconciliation will take place on Saturday, January 20, 2024 at 11 AM for children whose last name begins with A-L and at 1:30 PM for children whose last name begins with M-Z.

Monetary donations should be placed in the baskets in the church marked for the Office of Concern.

Thank you to all who donate to the Office of Concern to help those in our community.
