TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGESunday, November 5th

Matthew 23:1-12

Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees have taken their seat on the chair of Moses. Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you, but do not follow their example. . . All their works are performed to be seen. . . The greatest among you must be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

Reflection

"When those in positions of authority treat themselves as superior to the people in their care, it poisons the atmosphere for everyone. The deadly sins of pride and envy are invited to fester. The sense of entitlement can lead to abuse of those without power. Jesus' lesson for all of us is to realize that we are all called to serve."

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica (Feast) – The cathedral church of Rome (the pope's local parish as bishop of Rome) was dedicated by Pope Sylvester I in 324. Originally called the Most Holy Savior, it is called St. John Lateran because it was built on property donated by the Laterani family and its baptistry is named after St. John. It is 'the mother and head of all churches of the city and the world.'

Friday Romans 15:14-21; Luke 16:1-8

Saint Leo the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church (Memorial) – As pope, Leo the Great was known for his peacekeeping efforts, in particular for his encounter with Attila the Hun, whom he persuaded not to plunder Rome. His writings include pastoral sermons on faith and charity and on the incarnation.

Saturday Romans 16:3-9, 16, 22-27; Luke 16:9-15

Saint Martin of Tours, Bishop (Memorial) – As bishop of Tours [France], he worked ceaselessly to spread the faith. An excellent administrator, he invented the division of dioceses into parishes.

“Do We Act in Accordance with God?”

When we say that a Christian is a spiritual being, we mean just this: the Christian is a person who thinks and acts in accordance with God, in accordance with the Holy Spirit. But I ask myself, and do we: do we think in accordance with God? Do we act in accordance with God? Or do we let ourselves be guided by the many other things that certainly do not come from God? Each one of us needs to respond to this in the depths of his or her own heart.”

Continuous Religious Instruction For The Faith Development Of Your Child

The Religious Education Program is a curriculum of continuous religious instruction for students. Attendance at each grade level is important in order to establish a firm foundation in the faith, build upon it at each grade level, and prepare for the Sacraments. Visit our website www.olmc.us, click on 'LEARN', then 'Religious Education' to register.

Religious Education Classes Are In Session!

Class Schedule

Sunday, November 5 th	(8:45-9:55 AM)
Tuesday, November 7 th	(3:30-4:45 PM)
Sunday, November 12 th	(8:45-9:55 AM)
Tuesday, November 14 th	(3:30-4:45 PM)

Making time for your child's faith formation is possible. Families are busier than ever. That's why it's important to review your priorities.

➤ Think about the values you want to instill in your child (for example, honesty and respect). Then, think about your child's activities. How do they support the development of these values?

➤ Cut back on unneeded activities. For example, limit time spent watching TV or playing video games.

➤ Use a calendar or daily planner to block out time for faith formation classes, worship services, other church activities, and family faith-building.
