TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Sunday, December 3rd
Mark 13:33-37

Jesus said to his disciples: "Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come. It is like a man traveling abroad. He leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his own work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch. Watch, therefore; you do not know when the lord of the house is coming. . . May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to all: 'Watch!'"

Reflection

"Today's Gospel reading calls us to participate actively, remaining alert for Jesus' coming. Jesus explains that we are not just waiting passively for his coming; rather, we have been entrusted with God's work, each according to his or her ability. We are responsible for fulfilling our set tasks with the implication that we will need to give an account of ourselves when Jesus returns. This reading is appropriate as we prepare to commemorate Jesus' coming into this world on Christmas day."

The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Solemnity) – A feast dedicated to Mary's conception first appeared in the seventh century and by the twelfth century it was firmly established in England. St. Bernard and St. Thomas Aquinas debated whether Mary could have been born without original sin. In 1854 Pius IX defined the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception as a dogma of faith.

Blessing of the Advent Wreath

Lord God,
your Church joyfully awaits
the coming of its Savior,
who enlightens our hearts and dispels the darkness of ignorance and sin. Pour forth your blessings upon us as we light the candles of this wreath;
may their light reflect the splendor of Christ, who is Lord, for ever and ever.
Amen.

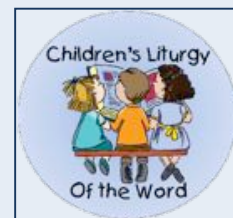

* * *

Today at Mass the Advent wreath is blessed and the first candle is lighted. On the second and succeeding Sundays of Advent, the candles are lighted, but no additional rites or prayers are used. The candles remind us of the one for whom we are waiting—Jesus, the Light of the World. Each week as we light another candle, the Advent wreath grows brighter. In the same way, as we prepare to welcome Jesus at Christmas, the light of his love is growing brighter in us.

Happy New Liturgical Year!

There are four Sundays of Advent. This year December 3rd—the First Sunday of Advent—marks the beginning of the new Church year and the liturgical season of Advent.

The liturgical year is the Church's calendar during which there is a cycle of special prayers and Bible readings to help us recall various mysteries of Jesus' life—his birth, suffering, death, resurrection and ascension into heaven. We also celebrate feasts honoring the Blessed Mother and saints. Today we begin liturgical cycle 'B.'

Each liturgical season is marked by a special color of vestments worn by the priest. Purple or deep blue are Advent colors, except for pink on the Third Sunday of Advent, also known as Gaudete Sunday.

Sacrament of Confirmation

Are you registered? If your child is in ninth grade and intends to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation this school year, please be sure to register for this sacrament. Registration can be done online at www.olmc.us. Go to 'SACRAMENTS' and 'Confirmation.'

CONFIRMATION SESSION
This SUNDAY, December 3rd
9:00 A.M. in the Titus Room

Please enter the building via the south parking lot (main Academy entrance/Clinton Avenue)
and take the stairs down to the Titus Room.

Please contact Elliot Guerra with any questions or concerns at eguerra@academyolmc.org.

Family Advent Activity

One way to prepare for Christ's coming into our lives is to make an Advent wreath for your daily household worship. This traditional circular wreath reminds us that God, like the circle, has no beginning and no end. Evergreens on the wreath symbolize our everlasting relationship with God. The wreath has four candles, three purple (or deep blue) and one rose (pink). Children can be creative in making their own Advent wreath. Each week we light one candle, beginning with a purple (or deep blue) candle today—the First Sunday of Advent. Today's candle is the candle of HOPE. As you light this candle, pray to God about the things you hope for.

Sacrament of First Reconciliation

A sacrament registration form was mailed to families with a child who is to receive First Reconciliation and First Eucharist this school year. Please be sure your child is registered.

Please continue to work with your child on the workbook that you received at last month's First Reconciliation Parent Meeting.

The celebration of First Reconciliation will take place on Saturday, January 20, 2024 at 11 AM for children whose last name begins with A-L and at 1:30 PM for children whose last name begins with M-Z.

If you have any questions, please contact the Religious Education Office at 201-871-4662 or reled@olmc.us.

Let us introduce you to the Academy staff and the programs we have to offer.

HERF JONES

A legend about Saint Ambrose as an infant recounts that a swarm of bees settled on his face while he lay in his cradle, leaving behind a drop of honey. His father is said to have considered this a sign of his future eloquence and honeyed tongue. Bees and beehives often appear in depictions of the saint. Saint Ambrose's Memorial is Thursday, December 7th.
