TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Sunday, December 10th
Mark 1:1-8

John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. . . And this is what he proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

Reflection

"Perhaps our task this Advent is to prepare our hearts for the Lord by removing those obstacles that can lead us to doubt. Perhaps making a straight path is as simple as opening our hearts to the possibility that God has an answer to all our doubts. Perhaps God's power, comfort, and forgiveness, are just searching for a clear path into us."

DAILY READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Tuesday Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab; Luke 1:39-47

Our Lady of Guadalupe (Feast) – Today's feast commemorates the apparitions of the Blessed Virgin in 1531 at Guadalupe to Juan Diego. She left her image on a cloak that is preserved in the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Wednesday Isaiah 40:25-31; Matthew 11:28-30

Saint Lucy, Virgin and Martyr (Memorial) – Lucy was martyred in the persecution of Emperor Diocletian. During the Middle Ages, people suffering from eye trouble began invoking Lucy's aid because her name is derived from the Latin word for 'light' (lux).

Thursday Isaiah 41:13-20; Matthew 11:11-15

Saint John of the Cross, Priest and Doctor of the Church (Memorial)/Carmelite Feast Day – Born into poverty, John entered the Carmelites and was ordained. With St. Teresa of Avila, he helped reform his order and create the reformed (Discalced) Carmelites. But his reforms were opposed, and he was imprisoned for almost a year. His writings are both classics of spirituality and of Spanish literature. John pictured the spiritual life as a journey of the soul to divine union.

Friday Isaiah 48:17-19; Matthew 11:16-19

Saturday Sirach 48:1-4, 9-11; Matthew 17:9a, 10-13

“Advent is a journey towards Bethlehem.”

—Pope Francis

The Advent wreath dates back to ancient celebrations of the winter solstice—that time in the year when the sun reaches its southern-most point and the days are the darkest. Because they longed for the return of the sun’s light and life, the ancients stopped all usual activity, sacrificed the use of their wagon wheels and hung them up, decorated with lights and greens in their celebration halls. There they awaited the return of their sun god, thinking of the warmth and life he brought.

As Christians, we use the same meaningful custom to anticipate the feast of light and life—the nativity of the Savior. We add one light on the wreath for each Sunday in Advent. We think of the darkness after Adam’s sin and watch the growing hope and light as the prophets and the Virgin Mary help us prepare for His saving birth.

What is Simbang Gabi? Simbang Gabi is ‘The Mass Before the Rooster Crows’ celebrated in the Filipino Christmas tradition. See the invitation above. All are invited!

Share The Warmth, Spread The Love

SAINT PROFILE

Saint John of the Cross

Carmelite Feast Day
December 14

St. John of the Cross is a saint because his life was a heroic effort to live up to his name: “of the Cross.” The folly of the cross came to full realization in time. “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me” (Mark 8:34b) is the story of John’s life. The Paschal Mystery—through death to life—strongly marks John as reformer, mystic-poet, and theologian-priest.

Ordained a Carmelite priest in 1567 at age 25, John met Teresa of Avila and like her, vowed himself to the primitive Rule of the Carmelites. As partner with Teresa and in his own right, John engaged in the work of reform, and came to experience the price of reform: increasing opposition, misunderstanding, persecution, and imprisonment. He came to know the cross acutely—to experience the dying of Jesus—as he sat month after month in his dark, damp, narrow cell with only his God.

In this dying of imprisonment John came to life, uttering poetry. In the darkness of the dungeon, John’s spirit came into the Light. There are many mystics, many poets; John is unique as mystic-poet, expressing in his prison-cross the ecstasy of mystical union with God in the Spiritual Canticle.

As agony leads to ecstasy, so John had his Ascent to Mt. Carmel, as he named it in his prose masterpiece. As man-Christian-Carmelite, he experienced in himself this purifying ascent; as spiritual director, he sensed it in others; as psychologist-theologian, he described and analyzed it in his prose writings. His prose works are outstanding in underscoring the cost of discipleship, the path of union with God: rigorous discipline, abandonment, purification. Uniquely and strongly John underlines the gospel paradox: The cross leads to resurrection, agony to ecstasy, darkness to light, abandonment to possession, denial to self to union with God. If you want to save your life, you must lose it. John is truly “of the Cross.” He died at 49—a short but full life.

Reflection:

In his life and writings, John of the Cross has a crucial word for us today. We tend to be rich, soft, comfortable. We shrink even from words like self-denial, mortification, purification, asceticism, discipline. We run from the cross. John’s message—like the gospel—is loud and clear: Don’t—if you really want to live!

Celebrating the Season of Advent as a Family!

People hoped and waited for so long for Jesus to come and bring light to the world! Parents can share stories about the ways they prepared and how they felt as they waited for their children to be born. Older siblings can share stories of waiting for younger siblings.

Let us pray: God, our Father, we pray as a family for your love and blessing. Help us to prepare our hearts for your Son Jesus. Help us to show our love for each other and for you. Bless and watch over us and all for whom we pray who are in need of our prayers. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sacrament of First Reconciliation

Children in second grade are getting ready to prepare to receive the sacrament of First Reconciliation. Be sure your child is registered for this sacrament! Please continue to work with your child on the workbook that you received at last month's First Reconciliation Parent Meeting.
