Our Lady of Mount Carmel Mission Statement

“We are the Roman Catholic Community of
Our Lady of Mount Carmel based in Tenafly, New Jersey.
Our mission is the promotion of the holiness of life through the celebration of the Sacraments, the sharing of the Gospel and the promotion of Catholic values.

We offer pastoral care through ministries that provide education, healing, spiritual growth and social outreach
in the Carmelite tradition.”

*“No matter who you are, no matter what you’ve done,
no matter where you’re from, no matter where you’re going,
no matter how good or bad things seem,
you are always welcome.”*

TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGESunday, December 31st

Luke 2:22-40

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, [Mary and Joseph] took [Jesus] up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord . . . Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon . . . It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord . . . and when the parents brought in the child Jesus . . . he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying: 'Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace' . . . There was also a prophetess, Anna . . . she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem.

Reflection

"Joseph and Mary brought Jesus to the temple to present him to the Lord because he was their firstborn son. Before he can even be consecrated, however, Simeon and Anna recognize the Savior of the world in this babe. In faith, they have waited all their lives for this moment to come. Their fidelity and devotion to God brought them to the temple each day and allowed them to see the light of the world who would shine forth for all to see."

Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God

Monday, January 1, 2024
Mass Time – 8:30 A.M.

This year the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God is not a holy day of obligation. Please join us for the regular daily Mass at 8:30 A.M.

WORLD DAY OF PEACE January 1, 2024

“The LORD bless you and keep you!
The LORD let his face
shine upon you,
and be gracious to you!
The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!”

Numbers 6:24-26

“Peace is a gift of God, but requires our efforts.
Let us be people of peace in prayer and deed.”

—Pope Francis

Pope Francis's Prayer Intention for January

The Gift of Diversity in the Church

Let us pray that the Holy Spirit helps us recognize the gift of different charisms within the Christian community, and to discuss the richness of different ritual traditions in the heart of the Catholic Church.

SOLEMNITY OF MARY JANUARY 1

“The feast is a celebration of Mary’s motherhood of Jesus. The title “Mother of God” is a western derivation from the Greek Theotokos, which means “God-bearer”. On this day, we are reminded of the role that the Blessed Virgin played in the plan of our salvation. Through the Holy Spirit, God the Father prepared Mary to be the dwelling place where His Son and His Spirit could dwell among men. Christ’s birth was made possible by Mary’s fiat, or sanctioning of God’s plan with her words, “Be it done to me according to thy word”. Calling Mary “Mother of God” is the highest honor we can give to her. Just as Christmas honors Jesus as the “Prince of Peace”, the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God honors Mary as the “Queen of Peace”. New Year’s Day is also designated as the “World Day of Peace”, further acknowledging the role of Mary in our hearts and in our world.”

SOURCE: www.holyfamily.org

“Mary Shows Us How to Live in the Spirit

The Virgin Mary teaches us what it means to live in the Holy Spirit and what it means to accept the news of God in our lives. She conceived Jesus by the work of the Holy Spirit, and every Christian, each one of us, is called to accept the Word of God, to accept Jesus inside of us, and then to bring him to everyone. Mary invoked the Holy Spirit with the apostles in the upper room; we, too, every time that we come together in prayer, are sustained by the spiritual presence of the Mother of Jesus in order to receive the gift of the Spirit and to have the strength to witness to Jesus risen. . . . May Mary help you to live and walk forever with the Holy Spirit!”

The Fisherman's Tomb: The True Story of the Vatican's Secret Search by John O'Neill

In 1939, a team of workers beneath the Vatican unearthed an early Christian grave. This surprising discovery launched a secret quest that would last decades—a quest to discover the long-lost burial place of the Apostle Peter. From earliest times, Christian tradition held that Peter—a lowly fisherman from Galilee, whom Christ made leader of his Church—was executed in Rome by Emperor Nero and buried on Vatican Hill. But his tomb had been lost to history. Now, funded anonymously by a wealthy American, a small army of workers embarked on the dig of a lifetime.

FIRST FRIDAY EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION
Friday, January 5th
 after the 8:30 AM Mass
 followed by Benediction at 3 PM

There are many people who have been attracted to the Catholic Church and entered the Church because they came to believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Our first U.S. born saint, Elizabeth Ann Seton, is one of these converts. She was drawn to enter the Catholic Church after she witnessed the devotion of Catholics to the Blessed Sacrament. She wondered about that devotion. God's grace led her to faith in the Real Presence. . . On the night after her entrance into the Catholic Church and her First Communion, St. Elizabeth Ann wrote in her journal: "At last GOD IS MINE and I AM HIS."

“One of Us”

by Deacon Lex Ferraiola

One of my favorite Christmas songs isn't really a Christmas holiday song at all. It's a song called, "One of Us." Composed in 1995 by Eric Bazilian and recorded by Joan Osborne, it was the theme song of the Emmy-nominated 2003 TV series, "Joan of Arcadia."¹ The show is about a teenage girl named Joan who is visited by God disguised as everyday people. She is given assignments by God that eventually bring healing and grace into the lives of others.

The lyrics of the song pose a question:

*What if God was one of us?
Just a slob like one of us.
Just a stranger on the bus,
Trying to make his way home.²*

I see this as a Christmas song because it reminds me of the Incarnation of God into our world as Jesus Christ, and that God is traveling alongside each of us as we journey through life.

God so loved the world that he came to live among us. He chose to ride the bus of life with us; to live, love, laugh, weep, suffer and die with us. God entered our time and space just to show us the way to get home.

That way is 'love.' Jesus didn't come to put burdens on our backs, or to appease an angry God. He didn't come to give us a bunch of new rules and regulations. He came to teach us how to truly love and forgive.

When Jesus was asked what we had to do to have eternal life, he gave a simple answer: "Love God with your whole heart and soul, and love others—all others—the same way." That's what the Incarnation is all about. That's what Christmas is all about. It's not really about giving and getting presents. It's about love and forgiveness.

Continued . . .

When you and I were conceived, God put a little piece of Godself into each of us. That little piece of God is our immortal soul, it is our true self, it is the presence of Christ within us. And life is the journey of our soul back home to God. It is our bus ride to eternal life. But we don't make that journey alone. God is always riding the bus with us. All that God asks in return is that we love and forgive each other as God loves and forgives us.

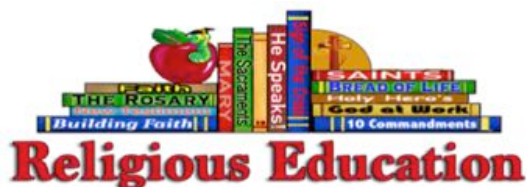

As we move through this final week of Advent, let's ask ourselves how well we are doing with that. Are we kind and forgiving, or do we carry a grudge? Are we inclusive, non-judgmental, and accepting, or do we exclude others who do not measure up to our moral or political standards? Are the doors to our heart always open, or are there family members and friends whom we have shut out of our lives?

As each of us prepares to celebrate Christmas, the Incarnation of God into our world, let us reopen any doors to our heart that may have been shut; and let us reach out with love, forgiveness, and kindness to all those who are riding with us on the bus of life.

Sacraments celebrate Christ's life

Of all the events that sacraments can point to in the past (biblical events, Church traditions, events in one's own faith journey), the most important are events in the life of Christ. Tradition tells us that all of the sacraments were instituted by Christ. Indeed, they each have a real foundation in the life and ministry of Jesus. Each relates to stories and teachings of Jesus.

12 Days of Christmas

The Church primarily celebrates Christmas for twelve days from Christmas Day until the Solemnity of the Epiphany, which commemorates the manifestation of Christ as the Savior of the whole world (cf. Mt. 2:1-12). The Church has also traditionally celebrated Christmas for 40 days, culminating on the Feast of the Presentation on Feb. 2. During this time, the birth of Christ is celebrated as one continuous festival. It is just as important to celebrate during the Christmas season as it is to prepare for Christ during Advent.

“May God surround you
and your families
with much peace, love, and joy.
Wishing all families
a happy and healthy New Year.”

—Ms. Verdonck, Principal

In this holy season of Christmas, we are so thankful. . .

For the many members of the parish who spent hours of their time constructing the nativity scenes for Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church and the town of Tenafly and for those who donated their time and talent to decorate our church this Christmas and beautify it throughout the year.

For all those parishioners who embraced our annual Giving Tree project for St. Simon Stock Church in the Bronx and “Stockings For Our Sisters” for the Franciscan Sisters in Tenafly, the Sisters of St. Joseph in Teaneck, the Sisters of Notre Dame in Dumont, and the Sisters of St. Joseph of Peace in Englewood Cliffs. And to all those who responded to “Share The Warmth, Spread The Love” collection of warm wear that were distributed at The Hoboken Shelter. Thank you to each of you for your kindness and generosity.

For the volunteers and donors to the Office of Concern who carry out the gospel mandate to feed the hungry.

For all who teach our children — in the Academy, the Religious Education Program, our parish’s Confirmation Program, and Children’s Liturgy of the Word. Your support and creativity in reaching out to students and teens is a testament to the power of the Holy Spirit working within you.

For all our liturgical ministers who help make every single celebration of the Eucharist, from weekday Masses to Sunday Masses, First Friday Masses, Holy Days of Obligation, and our Easter and Christmas Masses, prayerful and joyous. And for all those who give their time to all the liturgical needs of our church.

For all who prepare and serve the meals in our name in partnership with Family Promise of Bergen County.

“In the same way,
let your light
shine before others,
so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.”

Matthew 5:16

For all who give of their time, talent and treasure in so many ways to our parish’s outreach efforts.

For all who give their time and talent in an effort to build community in our parish—everything from this year’s OLMC Book Club, Women’s Book Group, Men’s Cornerstone, Coffee & Conversation, Simbang Gabi, and all that brings people together. And, a thank you to our Parish Advisory Board and Finance Council for their service to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church.

React less. Plan more.

Let your goals be your guide

Reduce uncertainty by leading with your goals. I'll ask the right questions and, together, create a clear financial plan. So you'll always know where you stand. And where you're going.
