TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Sunday, January 14th
John 1:35-42

John was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, "Behold, the Lamb of God." The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus. . . Andrew. . . first found his own brother Simon and told him, "We have found the Messiah."

Reflection

"Andrew clearly was enthralled with the Lord, for he stayed all day with him and recognized him as the Messiah. He could have stayed the night and chosen not to share Jesus' attention with anyone else. But he didn't. Late that afternoon he sought out his brother, told him that they had found the Messiah and brought him to Jesus. The invitation we receive is meant to be shared."

“Unity Is the Work of the Spirit

When we are the ones who try to create diversity and close ourselves up in what makes us different and other, we bring division. When we are the ones who want to build unity in accordance with our human plans, we end up creating uniformity, standardization. But if instead we let ourselves be guided by the Spirit, richness, variety, and diversity never become a source of conflict, because he impels us to experience variety within the communion of the Church.”

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity January 18-25

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is a response to Christ's prayer that they all may be one. It is an eight-day period of prayer in which all Christians are invited to participate. The week is celebrated each year from January 18-25 concluding on the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul.

O Lord Jesus Christ,
make me worthy to understand
the mystery of your holy incarnation,
which you have worked for our salvation.
Truly there is nothing so great
and wonderful as this,
that you, my God,
should become a creature
so that we could become like God.
You have humbled yourself
and made yourself small,
that we might be made mighty.
Blessed are you, O Lord,
who came to earth as one of us.
Amen.

—Saint Angela of Foligno

2024 – Year of Prayer

Pope Francis has proposed that 2024 should be marked as a year dedicated to prayer in preparation for the 2025 Jubilee Year 'Pilgrims of Hope.' The Year of Prayer started on December 3rd, the First Sunday of Advent. There is a particular focus on the Our Father and this presents us with an opportunity to go back to the basics of prayer. The 2025 Jubilee Year will begin on Christmas Eve 2024 with the opening of the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica, Rome.

The New Year Is An Opportunity To Begin Something New!

A church is far more than just a building. It's an assembly of people who share in God's love and serve God together. Church provides a sense of belonging and fellowship. Feel the joy of being a part of—and contributing to—a faith community. Thank you to all who serve the parish community of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Your faith and good works bring light, love, and prayerfulness to all of us. Please see future bulletins for information on ministries that OLMC Church has to offer.

Getting Ready for Reconciliation

“Mercy will always be greater than any sin,
and no one can place limits on the love of God who is ever ready to forgive.”

—Pope Francis

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE FOR KIDS

Based on the Ten Commandments.
This week we look at Commandments 6 through 10.

Sixth Commandment

“Neither shall you commit adultery.”

Be respectful in the things you do with your body.
Have I followed God’s rules in how I treat my body? Do I respect the bodies of others?

Seventh Commandment

“Neither shall you steal.”

Take care of other people’s things; don’t take what belongs to someone else. Have I respected other people’s things? Have I taken something that doesn’t belong to me?

Eighth Commandment

“Neither shall you bear false witness against your neighbor.”

Tell the truth. Have I told the truth? Have I told a lie or things that were only partly true?

Ninth Commandment

“Neither shall you covet your neighbor’s wife.”

Keep your thoughts and words clean. Have I told or listened to any dirty jokes? Have I watched any movies or shows that I shouldn’t have seen? Have I tried to keep my mind on good things?

Tenth Commandment

“Neither shall you desire . . . anything that belongs to your neighbor.”

Be happy with the things you have. Have I been happy with the things I have? Have I been jealous of others and what they have?

This New Year 2024 I want to thank you for everything . . . for those times I’ve missed saying thank you, for the thoughtfulness you’ve shown to me so many times, and for all the things you’ve done for me, not out of obligation, but out of the goodness of your heart in the spirit of love and concern for my happiness and wellbeing. I want you to know that I appreciate every kindness you’ve shown me. Thank you for the loyalty and trust you inspire. Thank you for the lessons in humanity that I have learned from you. Thank you for being such a beautiful example of caring people. I know I’ve said it before, but it is worthy of repetition, I appreciate each and every one and wish you all the best in life. I pray that this New Year 2024 brings joy and happiness into your life.

Blessings,
Sister Regina M. Chassar, ssj

A Message from the Principal

Returning to school in January is always filled with renewed energy and a resolve to make a positive difference in the lives of all the members of our school community. So, as we begin the New Year let's take time to focus once again on our personal goals and to adjust and fine-tune the steps we must take to achieve them. I encourage parents to sit down with their children and discuss their performance, celebrate the successes, and develop goals and next steps.
