TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Sunday, January 28th
Mark 1:21-28

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the Sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit...Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!"...All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this?...He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him."

Reflection

"The unclean spirit is made powerless and the man is freed of his torment. But the man would be wise to avoid the vulnerability that could lead to this demon returning to him, for it is only defeated for now, not destroyed forever. We too depend upon a higher power to exorcise our demons, but forever taking care to resist their reappearance later."

Saint John Bosco, Priest (Memorial) – Born in Italy, seeing the fate of children in prison, he formed the Salesian Society, named after St. Francis de Sales, and taught poor and working class boys wherever there was a need. With the help of St. Mary Mazzarello, he also established the Salesian Sisters to do similar work among girls.

She then entered the temple with her child, bringing a sacrificial offering, to be cleansed by prayers. The Feast of the Presentation began in fourth-century Jerusalem and was soon celebrated in Rome. In the Middle Ages, the feast was called Candlemas and celebrated with a candle blessing and procession.

FIRST FRIDAY EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Friday, February 2nd
after the 8:30 AM Mass
followed by Benediction at 3 PM

“The reality that, in the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ without ceasing to appear as bread and wine to our five senses is one of the central mysteries of the Catholic faith. This faith is a doorway through which we, like the saints and mystics before us, may enter into a deeper perception of the mercy and love manifested in and through Christ’s sacramental presence in our midst. There are many people who have been attracted to the Catholic Church and entered the Church because they came to believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Our first U.S. born saint, Elizabeth Ann Seton, is one of these converts. She was drawn to enter the Catholic Church after she witnessed the devotion of Catholics to the Blessed Sacrament. She wondered about that devotion. God’s grace led her to faith in the Real Presence. . . On the night after her entrance into the Catholic Church and her First Communion, St. Elizabeth Ann wrote in her journal: ‘At last GOD IS MINE and I AM HIS.’”

- Seek forgiveness.
- Learn how God's word affects our lives.
- Offer yourself to God.
- Experience the miracle of bread and wine changing into the Body and Blood of Christ.
- Reach out to others in peace.

Office of Concern Food Pantry at St. Cecilia Church, Englewood

For over 40 years, the volunteers at the Office of Concern Food Pantry have been assisting families in Bergen County with weekly supplemental food.

The collection of non-perishable items is the second weekend of each month. Donations of non-perishable items should be placed in OLMC's elevator lobby. The Office of Concern also accepts monetary donations year-round. A monetary gift allows the Office of Concern to provide more food as they are able to purchase in bulk at a discount rate. Monetary donations are also used by the Office of Concern to purchase fresh produce, meat, and dairy. Monetary donations should be placed in the baskets in the church marked for the Office of Concern.

Thank you to all who donate to the Office of Concern to help those in our community.

Communicating God's Word Collection This Weekend

By supporting this collection you help to spread the Good News of God's word to people around the country and around the world. Your donation also supports local communications projects. Thank you for your consideration of this collection.

React less. Plan more.

Let your goals be your guide

Reduce uncertainty by leading with your goals. I'll ask the right questions and, together, create a clear financial plan. So you'll always know where you stand. And where you're going.
