TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Sunday, January 7th
Matthew 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage" . . . They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage.

Reflection

"The magi were truly wise, for not only did they set out at once for Judea once they saw the star at its rising, they also changed their plan to return to Herod after finding the child. They had an epiphany, as it were, after encountering the Messiah, after finding him in a place they could not have anticipated when they'd left their homes. We would do well to be open to epiphanies of our own after an unexpected encounter with the Lord."

Monday Isaiah 55:1-11; Mark 1:7-11

The Baptism of the Lord (Feast) – "The Baptism of Jesus Christ was originally celebrated on Epiphany along with two other gospel events: the coming of the Magi and the wedding at Cana. But over time it came to be celebrated as a distinct feast from Epiphany. In 1955, Pope Pius XII officially instituted a separate celebration of Christ's Baptism."

Tuesday 1 Samuel 1:9-20; Mark 1:21-28

Wednesday 1 Samuel 3:1-10, 19-20; Mark 1:29-39

Thursday 1 Samuel 4:1-11; Mark 1:40-45

Blessing Of Homes On The Epiphany Of The Lord

“The traditional method for blessing homes this day [uses] incense, chalk (an incarnational image because it reminds us of the dust of the earth from which we were made), and “Jordan water.” The chalk is used to mark 20 + C + M + B + 24 over doorways. The numerals consecrate the new year. The initials remind us of the legendary names of the magi—Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar—and also stand for the Latin motto Christus, mansionem benedicat (“May Christ bless the house”).”

SOURCE: Pastoral Patterns, Winter 2023-2024

O God,
by your heavenly star,
you guided those who were wise
to your beloved Son, Jesus Christ.
May your blessing come to rest on us.
Make us wise with your wisdom,
energized by your love,
and ready to proclaim
your Son as our Savior.
May your Word made flesh
make his home among us.
Amen.

EPIPHANY PROCLAMATION

The proclamation of the date of Easter and the other moveable feasts on Epiphany dates from a time when calendars were not readily available. It was necessary to make known the date of Easter in advance, since many celebrations of the liturgical year depend on its date. The number of Sundays that follow Epiphany, the date of Ash Wednesday, and the number of Sundays that follow Pentecost are all computed in relation to Easter.

Although calendars now give the date of Easter and the other feasts in the liturgical year for many years in advance, the Epiphany proclamation still has value. It is a reminder of the centrality of the resurrection of the Lord in the liturgical year and the importance of the great mysteries of faith that are celebrated each year.

Know, dear brothers and sisters, that, as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, so by leave of God's mercy we announce to you also the joy of his Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the fourteenth day of February will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the fast of the most sacred Lenten season.

On the thirty-first day of March you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the twelfth day of May will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the nineteenth day of May, the feast of Pentecost.

On the second day of June, the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

On the first day of December, the First Sunday of the Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom is honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Pope Francis's Prayer Intention for January

The Gift of Diversity in the Church

Let us pray that the Holy Spirit helps us recognize the gift of different charisms within the Christian community, and to discuss the richness of different ritual traditions in the heart of the Catholic Church.

"Dynamic Catholics have a daily commitment to prayer . . .

[If] you ask Catholics, 'Do you pray?' they all say yes. But the great majority of Catholics don't have a plan when it comes to prayer. . . The Christian life is simply not sustainable without daily prayer. It is just not likely that you will become (or remain) a patient, compassionate, others-centered person who is focused on what matters most without daily prayer. Highly engaged Catholics have figured this out, and that is one of the reasons why they have a daily commitment to prayer."

Kelly, Matthew. The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic. N.p. Beacon Publishing, 2012.

2024 – Year of Prayer

Pope Francis has proposed that 2024 should be marked as a year dedicated to prayer in preparation for the 2025 Jubilee Year 'Pilgrims of Hope.' The Year of Prayer started on December 3rd, the First Sunday of Advent. There is a particular focus on the Our Father and this presents us with an opportunity to go back to the basics of prayer. The 2025 Jubilee Year will begin on Christmas Eve 2024 with the opening of the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica, Rome.

The Fisherman's Tomb: The True Story of the Vatican's Secret Search by John O'Neill

In 1939, a team of workers beneath the Vatican unearthed an early Christian grave. This surprising discovery launched a secret quest that would last decades—a quest to discover the long-lost burial place of the Apostle Peter. Now, funded anonymously by a wealthy American, a small army of workers embarked on the dig of a lifetime.
