TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Sunday, March 17, 2024

John 12:20-33

Some Greeks who had come to worship at the Passover Feast came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we would like to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit."

Reflection

"Witness a grain of wheat . . . planted in soil, it will break open and grow into a plant that dwarfs its original size. This is what Jesus envisions for us. If we are willing to sacrifice our own self-interest, we can act out of love for others, producing much fruit in the garden of the kingdom. Our challenge is to love God and love neighbor more than our own life. What part of myself that I've become attached to in a self-centered way can 'die' so that I will clear more space in my heart and my schedule for love of neighbor?"

Matthew's infancy narrative in particular focuses on Joseph's dilemma. Embarrassed by Mary's pregnancy with a child that is not his, Joseph decided to quietly dissolve their marriage contract. But he is told in a dream to take Mary as his wife and make her child his own, and so he became the earthly father of Jesus. His feast has been observed on this day since the tenth century."

LENTEN PENANCE SERVICE

The last penance service in our deanery is Monday, March 18th at 7 PM at Our Lady of the Visitation Church, Paramus. Individual confessions are heard here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church on Saturdays from 4:00 to 4:30 PM, or by appointment with a priest.

Saint Patrick, Bishop

“Patrick, the Apostle of Ireland, tells his story in his Confession. He was kidnapped by pirates and taken to Ireland as a slave, but after six years he escaped, returned to Britain, and eventually became a priest. Pope Celestine sent him to evangelize the Irish.”

Examination of Conscience

Before we celebrate the Sacrament of Penance, we should prepare ourselves with an examination of conscience, which involves reflecting prayerfully on our thoughts, words and deeds in order to identify any sins. Our examination of conscience should be rooted in Scripture, particularly the Ten Commandments and Beatitudes. Examining your conscience provides an opportunity to recognize sin and seek God's grace.

*A clean heart create for me, O God,
and a steadfast spirit renew within me.”*

Psalm 51: 12-13

“St. Joseph is a man of great spirit.
He is great in faith,
not because he speaks
his own words,
but above all because he listens
to the words
of the Living God.”

Sacraments Celebrate Christ's Life...

Tradition tells us that all of the sacraments were instituted by Christ. Indeed, they each have a real foundation in the life and ministry of Jesus. Each relates to stories and teachings of Jesus.

For example, Eucharist reminds us of the Last Supper. Those familiar with the Gospels are also reminded of other meals to which Jesus invited even those who were rejected by others.

"The sacraments are efficacious signs of grace, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church, by which divine life is dispensed to us. The visible rites by which the sacraments are celebrated signify and make present the graces proper to each sacrament. They bear fruit in those who receive them with the required dispositions" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1131).
