Our Lady of Mount Carmel Mission Statement

“We are the Roman Catholic Community of
Our Lady of Mount Carmel based in Tenafly, New Jersey.
Our mission is the promotion of the holiness of life through the celebration of the Sacraments, the sharing of the Gospel and the promotion of Catholic values.

We offer pastoral care through ministries that provide education, healing, spiritual growth and social outreach
in the Carmelite tradition.”

*“No matter who you are, no matter what you’ve done,
no matter where you’re from, no matter where you’re going,
no matter how good or bad things seem,
you are always welcome.”*

PALM SUNDAY Sunday, March 24

“We begin the celebration of Holy Week by calling down Gods blessing upon the symbol that today’s feast is named for: the palm branches that were used to welcome our Lord to Jerusalem. ‘Hosanna!’ the crowds accompanying him cried out, praising the Son of Man as he rode into the holy city. ‘Hosanna!’ the residents called out, eager to witness firsthand what this miracle worker would do. We sing hosannas today, as we enter the holiest week of the year, the week when we recall Jesus’ passion, death, and resurrection.”

Mark 11:1-10

When Jesus and his disciples drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and immediately on entering it, you will find a colt tethered on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone should say to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ reply, ‘The Master has need of it and will send it back here at once.’” So they went off and found a colt tethered at a gate outside on the street, and they untied it. Some of the bystanders said to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?” They answered them just as Jesus had told them to, and they permitted them to do it. So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. Those preceding him as well as those following kept crying out:

“Hosanna!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

Hosanna in the highest!”

REST IN PEACE

Please remember in your prayers all the military men and women who have died this week.

“He Gave Himself Up ‘for Me’

Jesus gave himself up to death voluntarily in order to reciprocate the love of God the Father, in perfect union with his will, to demonstrate his love for us. On the cross Jesus ‘loved me and gave himself for me’ (Galatians 2:20). Each one of us can say: ‘He loved me and gave himself for me.’ Each one can say this ‘for me.’”

“The Dignity of Children of God

Our filial relationship with God is not like a treasure that we keep in a corner of our life, but must be increased. It must be nourished every day with listening to the word of God, with prayer, with participation in the sacraments, especially Reconciliation and the Eucharist, and with love. We can live as children! And this is our dignity—we have the dignity of children. We should behave as true children! This means that every day we must let Christ transform us and conform us to him; it means striving to live as Christians, endeavoring to follow him in spite of seeing our limitations and weaknesses. The temptation to set God aside in order to put ourselves at the center is always at the door, and the experience of sin injures our Christian life, our being children of God.”

PASCHAL TRIDUUM

The Easter Triduum begins with the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, also known as Maundy Thursday. It reaches its high point at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday and ends with the Evening Prayer on Easter Sunday. The Triduum is the summit of the Liturgical Year commemorating Christ's Paschal Mystery – Jesus' passion, death and resurrection. Please join us as we celebrate this holy time in our Church's liturgical year.

FAST & ABSTINENCE

GOOD FRIDAY is a day of both Fast and Abstinence. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (Holy Saturday night). On a day of Fast, only one full meal is permitted and two smaller meals which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast. On a day of Abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.

HOLY THURSDAY

Thursday, March 28

Mass of the Lord's Supper

7:30 P.M.

Holy Thursday is the commemoration of the Last Supper of Jesus Christ, when Christ established the sacrament of Holy Communion prior to his arrest and crucifixion. The central observance of Holy Thursday is the ritual reenactment of the Last Supper at Mass. He also established the special priesthood for his disciples. Christ washed the feet of his disciples, who would become the first priests. We continue the tradition here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church with The Washing of Feet during the Holy Thursday liturgy.

There is a tradition of spending time at the altars of repose of seven churches on Holy Thursday. This tradition corresponds to the seven stations that were made by Our Lord between the Last Supper and His crucifixion. All are invited to stay and keep watch in Eucharistic Adoration after our Holy Thursday Mass.

*“Before the feast of Passover,
Jesus knew that his hour had come to pass from this world to the Father.
He loved his own in the world
and he loved them to the end.”*

John 13:1

GOOD FRIDAY

Friday, March 29

Good Friday is the day on which Catholics commemorate the crucifixion of Jesus Christ and his death at Calvary. Today we read the Passion of the Lord according to Saint John.

Ecumenical Walk

1 P.M.

The Ecumenical Walk starts at Episcopal Church of the Atonement, 97 Highwood Avenue, Tenafly with stops at select churches for scripture readings and prayers. It ends at Trinity Lutheran Church (430 Knickerbocker Road) around 3 PM. It is not necessary to complete the walk to participate.

Passion of the Lord & Holy Communion

7:30 P.M.

According to the Church's ancient tradition, Mass is not celebrated today. The celebration of the Lord's Passion consists of the Liturgy of the Word, the Adoration of the Cross, and Holy Communion.

*We adore You, O Christ,
and we praise you,
because by Your holy cross
You have redeemed the world.*

HOLY SATURDAY

Saturday, March 30

Today we wait at the Lord's tomb, meditating on Christ's suffering and death. During the night, we anticipate Christ's resurrection at the vigil Mass, leading into the celebration of Easter, and continuing for fifty days of the Easter Season.

Blessing of Easter Food Baskets

12 NOON

The blessing of Easter foods on Holy Saturday has been an important tradition in many families of different ethnic backgrounds. Several foods have symbolic meaning:

- eggs - symbolize life and Christ's resurrection
- bread - symbolic of Jesus, the Bread of Life
- lamb - represents Christ, the Paschal Lamb
- salt - represents purification
- horseradish - symbolic of the bitter sacrifice of Christ
- ham - symbolic of great joy and abundance

The priests of Our Lady of Mount Carmel invite you to bring your Easter food baskets to the Church on Holy Saturday, March 30th for a special blessing at 12 Noon.

The Easter Vigil in the Holy Night

8 P.M.

By ancient tradition, this is the night of keeping vigil for the Lord. The vigil is divided into four parts: Service of Light, Liturgy of the Word, Liturgy of Baptism, and Liturgy of the Eucharist. Join us for this beautiful liturgy as we recount the outstanding deeds of the history of salvation.

*“A clean heart create for me, O God,
and a steadfast spirit
renew within me.”*

A Family Holy Week Guide

Our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving are meant as preparation for Holy Week and the Triduum days.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of Our Lord: Today is called both Palm Sunday as well as Passion Sunday. As we receive palms on this day, we will also hear a Gospel story of the last days in the life of Jesus. In this Gospel Jesus consoles the “good criminal” and he forgives those responsible for his death.

THE TRIDUUM DAYS BEGIN . . .

Holy Thursday: The liturgy on Holy Thursday recalls the institution of the Eucharist by Jesus and includes the words of Jesus: “As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.” In our ritual remembrance, we, too, are asked to wash the feet of our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Family Activity:

Attend a time of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Pray for intentions that are near and dear to your heart; for example, health, joy, peace in your family and families throughout the world.

Good Friday: The church is bare on Good Friday. The altar is stripped of ornamentation and the tabernacle is left open and empty. Mass is not celebrated on this day. The liturgy today includes readings from various books of the Old and New Testament. There are intercessions for the various needs of the Church and the world. After this, there is veneration and Holy Communion reserved from the Mass that was celebrated on Holy Thursday.

Family Activity:

Spend time in prayer or possibly attend the Stations of the Cross as a way to be with Jesus in his suffering. We are called to fast and abstain from meat on Good Friday.

Easter Vigil/Holy Saturday: The Easter Vigil Mass is a rich moment in time in which we are drawn into Jesus’ timeless victory over sin and death that is now ours. The vigil begins in darkness, and then the paschal candle is lit from the fire. We are in partial darkness when we listen to the scripture reading. The Gloria, which has not been sung throughout Lent, is intoned. The lights are turned on which give us the vivid symbol of the Light that floods our entire life through Jesus.

The reception into the Catholic faith through the sacrament of Baptism is celebrated with candidates who have prepared for this sacrament through the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) process during the year. They will also receive the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.

Family Activity:

If you are attending the Easter Vigil, talk about the symbols that are so rich in this liturgy: fire, water, oil, light, and darkness. The Church teaches us through these signs and symbols.

Easter Sunday: Celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead! On this Sunday we remember that Jesus, Our Savior, has risen from the dead. He died for us on the cross and now lives!
