Our Lady of Mount Carmel Mission Statement

“We are the Roman Catholic Community of
Our Lady of Mount Carmel based in Tenafly, New Jersey.
Our mission is the promotion of the holiness of life through the celebration of the Sacraments, the sharing of the Gospel and the promotion of Catholic values.

We offer pastoral care through ministries that provide education, healing, spiritual growth and social outreach
in the Carmelite tradition.”

*“No matter who you are, no matter what you’ve done,
no matter where you’re from, no matter where you’re going,
no matter how good or bad things seem,
you are always welcome.”*

A Letter from the Pastor

Fr. Richard Supple, O.Carm.

Dear Brothers and Sisters
of Our Lady of Mount Carmel,

In the language of the Church's liturgy, Easter is the great "feast of joy" that celebrates the newness of life that bursts forth for all believers in the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Church proclaims the good news for all to hear: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad!" In fact, we celebrate this great feast not just on this day, but for the whole week! We call this "the octave of Easter," and during the coming week, we will listen to some of the most beautiful Scripture readings in the New Testament. The central message of these readings is that Jesus is indeed alive and risen from the dead, and we, his disciples, are invited to look at our lives from a completely new perspective. We, too, are raised from the depths of sin which caused spiritual death and called to live this new life as witnesses to our belief in the resurrection.

On behalf of myself and all of the staff of OLMC parish, I want to wish you a very happy Easter! May the promise of new life with Jesus move you today to hear his desire for you, his thirst for you. May you be moved to look deeply into the eyes of those you meet this day and see the Christ, not a stranger, but the Christ who comes to us today in the people we meet. May you have a true encounter with the risen One as did those early disciples. And may you know his deep desire for you and share that joy with all whom you encounter.

May God bless you always,
Fr. Richard

Christ is Risen!

Welcome

to Our Lady of
Mount Carmel Church

To register with Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, please contact the Church Office at 201-568-0545 or find our form online at www.olmc.us. Click on 'Welcome' and scroll down to 'Parish Registration.' Also, please see page 2 of this bulletin for our schedule of Masses and Sacrament information.

Moving out of the parish? If you will be moving out of the parish, please let us know. The Church Office and the Religious Education Office are here to assist you with any sacramental or religious instruction information you need to provide to your new parish.

Welcome to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church
as we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Regina Caeli

- V. Queen of Heaven rejoice, alleluia.
R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.
- V. Has risen, as He said, alleluia.
R. Pray for us to God, alleluia.
- V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.
R. Because our Lord is truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Regina Caeli is an ancient Latin hymn honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is prayed in place of the Angelus during the Easter season beginning on Holy Saturday through Pentecost Sunday.

“The Gift of the Risen Christ

The life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me” (Galatians 2:20). What is this life? It is God’s own life. And who brings us this life? It is the Holy Spirit, the gift of the Risen Christ. The Spirit leads us into the divine life as true children of God, as sons and daughters in the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ. Are we open to the Holy Spirit? Do we let ourselves be guided by him?”

“He is risen! Today we gather in joy to celebrate the holiest and most wonderful of days: Easter Sunday. Jesus, who sacrificed his life on behalf of us, has been raised from the dead. Since we are all baptized into his death, we are all raised to new life in him. The Resurrection transforms us. In that newness of life, we come together to celebrate at this most glorious feast, singing of our joy and thanksgiving. Alleluia!”

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him.” So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

“The Cross Is A Love Letter From God”

by Deacon Lex Ferraiola

If you enter our church between Easter Sunday and Pentecost, you'll see a very different image above the altar. Instead of the cross with the image of the Crucified Christ, beaten and broken and in the arms of death, you'll see the Risen Christ, triumphant and ascending in all his glory.

For many years I preferred that image of the Risen Christ. I wished that we would keep it up there, over the altar, all year long. But as I grew in my faith I came to see and appreciate the powerful message of the Crucified Christ, beaten and twisted on the cross. It tells us that we are not alone; that God is by our side through all that we encounter, all that we endure here in life.

Sometimes life doesn't make sense. There is chaos, there is darkness; bad things, inexplicable things happen. As an individual, as a family, a nation, maybe even as a parish community, we suffer great losses, deep wounds, even contradictions to our faith. The symbol of our Christian faith is itself a contradiction: the cross, two opposing beams of wood made from the tree of life and yet used to torture and destroy life. And in the center of the contradiction, in the center of the cross, we find God in human form.

But the message of the cross is hope. It tells us that we are not alone; that God is with us in the chaos and the darkness; he is present in the pain, the loss, the suffering; he is there at the center of the contradiction, at the center of the cross.

And some day, once we are free of the constraints of human existence and the limitations of human understanding, it will all make sense. There will be no more loss, no more wounds, no more contradictions, just God's love for all eternity.

The cross, with the image of the Crucified Christ, is a love letter from God. As we go through the storms of life, let us keep reading that love letter and listening to the message it contains. With the cross God is whispering to us:

*I am with you in the chaos and the darkness.
I am here at the center of your cross.
I love you and am with you for always . . .*

“Welcome Jesus as a Friend

Let the Risen Jesus enter your life; welcome him as a friend, with trust: he is life! He is with you, and he will give you the peace you are looking for and the strength to live as he would have you do.”

—Pope Francis

FIRST FRIDAY EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION
Friday, April 5th
after the 8:30 AM Mass
followed by Benediction at 3 PM

Please call Mary Buchanan at 201-871-9667 to schedule a time to spend in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

How is the date of Easter determined? Easter is held on the first Sunday after the first Full Moon occurring on or after the vernal equinox (March 20).

When does the Easter season end? The Easter season continues for 50 days—from Easter Sunday through the Ascension of Our Lord to Pentecost Sunday.

What follows the Easter season? The Church returns to Ordinary Time, picking up where we left off before Lent.

Lord, the resurrection of your Son has given us new life and renewed hope.

Help us to live as new people in pursuit of the Christian ideal.

Grant us wisdom to know what we must do,
the will to want to do it,
the courage to undertake it,
the perseverance to continue to do it,
and the strength to complete it.

Some fun facts about Easter eggs...

Eggs are a symbol of new life and giving decorated Easter eggs as gifts celebrate new life. As Christians, we remember Jesus' resurrection from the dead and the empty tomb on Easter. Eggs are a symbol of Jesus' resurrection. The act of rolling Easter eggs is symbolic of rolling away the stone at the entrance to Jesus' tomb. A cracked open egg represents the empty tomb.

A Message from Scripture for Teens...

“Don’t let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity.”

Jesus touches our lives through the sacraments. Our celebrations of the sacraments are signs of Jesus' presence in our lives and a means for receiving his grace.

A Jelly Bean Prayer for Children

RED is for the blood you gave,
 And BLACK is for the empty grave.
YELLOW is for the shining sun,
WHITE is for new life begun.
GREEN is for the grass and trees,
PURPLE is for your majesty.
ORANGE is for the edge of night,
 And PINK is for the morning light.
 Amen.

Eucharist Is The Heart Of Christian Life...

Families sharing meals together help children understand many concepts that are important to understanding Eucharist. Children grasp concepts like unity and belonging from experiences of sharing, listening, eating, conversing, thanking and celebrating. This is done at special holiday dinners, birthdays and everyday family meals. These experiences at family gatherings are not only helpful to the First Communicant, but the whole family benefits as they grow in the understanding of Christian family life.

Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation will be celebrated at OLMC Church on Wednesday, April 17th at 7 PM. Rehearsal for candidate and sponsor is Thursday, April 11th at 7 PM in the church.

KNOWLEDGE

Knowledge is the ability to find important information and facts and look at them objectively and intelligently.

>The more knowledge you have about the world, the better you will be able to make wise decisions and to assist others. Can you think of a person you respect because he or she is knowledgeable and acts for the good because of this knowledge?

This is the wonderful truth, my dear friends: the Word, which became flesh over two thousand years ago, is present today in the Eucharist.
